BATTLING NELSON AFTER WOLGAST

(By Harry B. Smith.)

Battling Nelson has started what the Dane himself is pleased to call a press campaign in the hope of forcing Ad Wolgast into a return match for the lightweight championship. Nelson, who is a handy writer and packs around with him his own typewriting machine, has called to his assistance John R. Robinson, who was manager and press agent for the Hegewisch boy before his unhappy fight with the German lad in Richmond.

Nelson is conducting the campaign while on the road. He interviews himself in the most approved style. In fact, the article is quite ready for the linotype machine by the time it leaves the Dane.

Speaking of himself, Nelson writes in the third person as follows:

"The Dane, as usual, is going about the affair in a businesslike manner and believes that a strong campaign of publicity will soon create a demand on the part of the public which Wolgast cannot afford to ignore."

Having said which, the Battler quotes himself and points out in his interview that since winning the title Wolgast has fought one battle—an easy ten-round affair with Jack Redmond, "A god fighter," so the boxer press agent says, "but not in the championship running."

"We can fight to a finish at Reno, and can get a barrel of money for it," adds Nelson. "I am now starting on an automobile trip and will be gone three months. I weigh about 150 pounds and have something to train in, a statement I could not make when I fought Wolgast before."

And the best of it is that most of us are hoping Nelson will have the opportunity for a return bout. That doesn't mean necessarily that he will win, but he is entitled to the chance. Battling Nelson, as a champion, never objected to return matches, and gave everybody a second bout, if it was desired.

As the Dane points out, Wolgast has not had a strenuous time as a champion. It is quite true that the game of pugilism has been fading away the last few months, but even with that in mind, Wolgast has not appeared anxious to step into the ring.

"Can Sharkey 'Come Back'?" Nowadays the eastern writers are gravely discussing the possibility of Tom Sharkey re-entering the ring, for the following comes from one of the New York papers:

"If Tom Sharkey's training gets him back into fighting shape again, the sailor can have a lot of fun with the almost fighters who decorate the heavyweight class. Imagine Tom Sharkey, as we saw him when he first came ashore from the Philadelphia, turned loose on Al Kaufman or Lang, or Sandy Ferguson, or Tony Ross, or any of the others! He'd eat 'em alive!"

Wonder if the lesson that was taught by the Jeffries-Johnson affair has been forgotten. Sharkey, even more than Jeffries, has been living an easy life for some eight years, and could no more come back than could the famous Californian.

The reported discovery that Miles McLeod would eventually prove a worthy opponent, for Jack Johnson was good for a laugh, but it has now reached a point that Miles should go to the discard. The Missourian who is heralded as the "hope of the white race," has reached Chicago and has been given a tryout by Joe Chovinski. Professor Joe gives it as his expert opinion that McLeod is far from being an amateur, and that he has the stuff in him to make a champion.

Chovinski is talking foolishly. Joe knows the boxing game well enough to know that a heavyweight champion isn't groomed in a few weeks or months. If there is no heavyweight in training given a chance with Johnson, then it would be absurd to regard the outsider in a serious light.

We've had enough of McLeod and his pretensions.

Mean of Him. He sent her an autumn leaf of red. "This leaf is like your cheeks," he said.

And he never knew why she passed him by. With upturned cheek and frosty eye. But the truth of it was, some rival fellow

TAWNEY IS A LIFE SAVER

Congressman Has His Face Scratched for His Heroic Efforts

Winona, Minn., Oct. 4.—Congressman James A. Tawney played the role of a hero yesterday and saved a woman and her three children from almost certain death behind a runaway horse. In doing so, however, he came in contact with a barbed wire fence and now his face and hands are done up in bandages.

Mr. and Mrs. Tawney were guests in the automobile of a friend and had spent the afternoon on the river road. A woman with three children in a carriage signaled to the autoists to stop. The car was brought to a halt and Mr. Tawney stepped out to assist in leading the horse past, the woman and her children remaining in the carriage.

Hardly had Tawney seized the reins at the horse's head before the animal plunged up a hill, dragging the congressman and the buggy after him. Mr. Tawney clung tightly and frantically sought to bring the horse to a stop. He was unsuccessful, however, and it dashed past the automobile and to the other side of the other side of the road into a barbed wire fence. Mr. Tawney got the full force of the impact with the fence.

TRUTH CROPS OUT

Why Pile Sufferers So Often Fail
To Get Relief

Science is getting to the bottom of everything, including the cause and cure of piles. The brightest doctors now admit that piles are caused internally and can be cured only by internal treatment. Dr. J. S. Leonard, some time ago perfected a remedy in tablet form—Hem-Roid, which cures the cause of piles, and therefore cures permanently. It is sold by Badcon's Pharmacy, Ogden, Utah, under money-back guarantee. $1 for 24 days' treatment. Dr. Leonard, 24, Station B, Buffalo, N. Y. Write for booklet.

THE ONLY WAY.

Many Ogden Citizens Have Discovered It.

Just what to do when the kidneys are affected is a question that concerns both young and old. Weak kidneys neglected in childhood lead to life-long suffering. People of advanced years, with less vitality, suffer doubly. In youth or age, languor, backache, nervous irregularity, dizziness and nervousness make life a burden.

There is one remedy that acts directly on the kidneys and cures these troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills "owe" their world-wide fame to the fact that they cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Follow the example of this Ogden citizen and you will be convinced that this is so.

Mrs. Rebecca Hartley, 2806 Adams avenue, Ogden, Utah, says: "The public statement my husband gave in 1906, endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills, was correct in every particular, and you may continue its publication. I used this remedy and it did me a world of good. I have since recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to many other people who are suffering."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FASHION PLATES ARE MISLEADING

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Fashion plates depicting women whose faces show character, intellect and refinement instead of the "absurd dolls and ridiculously soft countenances" that now look out from the style pictures, would work a great reform in the opinion of Miss Mary Snow, supervisor of household articles in the public schools.

"I wish," said Miss Snow yesterday at the opening of the first year's work in which all girls in the eighth grade are to be taught sewing, that some really and truly handsome women could be shown in the fashion plates with the kind of clothes that should be worn, stress being laid upon the fitness of character that the woman's face is sure to show if she possesses the qualities that go to make up a fine nature. This would help to give young girls proper conceptions of style that is of dignity."

CAPT. STREETER IS TO LOSE OUT

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Captain Geo. Wellington Streeter's dream of wealth from the sale of lands thrown up by Lake Michigan about the good ship Reuten when she was wrecked off Chicago avenue in 1888 was given a final jolt yesterday. It was announced through the medium of the legal boards in the county building, that all of "Cap's" interest, real or phantom, in the "destrict" will be sold at auction to the highest bidder on October 18. Property is valued at $80,000.

The reason for the sale of the property is a judgment of $10,000 against "Cap." The debt was incurred by the mariner-estate man in his efforts to obtain his release from a life sentence at Joliet which had been imposed following the trial of "Cap" for killing a watchman while defending the "destrict" with armed retainers.

"Cap" was released after serving twelve months in the penitentiary, but not before he had up a heavy bill for legal services. Now he is to be stripped of his rights to any lands he owns.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one cured disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. HILL'S Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. HILL'S Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the fount of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietor has so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for literature.

HILL'S Family Pills are the best.

In the "destrict" to satisfy the claim of Attorney W. G. Anderson, who brought about his release.

It is said the present move is only a forerunner to mandamus proceedings which will then be instituted by the purchasers of "Cap's" claims.

"Cap" Streeter in his "land boat" is pondering over the shattering of his hopes, which had survived the many years sustained in his battles with the millionaire landholders who had made the "destrict" one of the fashionable districts of the north side.

This remedy is thoroughly scientific and is so uniformly successful that it is sold with a registered guarantee to refund your money if it fails to effect a cure. ## SAILORS WHO CANNOT SWIM

New York, Oct. 4.—Midshipman Godfrey Chevalier, the hero of the Atlantic fleet's disaster last Saturday night, when more than a score of the battleship New Hampshire's sailors were lost through the swamping of a barge, has just been released from the care of surgeons. He nearly perished from exhaustion after rescuing a dozen or more of the imperiled sailors. By the light of his own heroic conduct, Chevalier does not regard the affair with any degree of satisfaction.

"It seems as if I have always been in trouble," he told a number of friends who went aboard the New Hampshire to congratulate him on the part he played in the work of rescue.

"There was a hazing matter at Annapolis, in my plebe year, when everybody in the upper classes said that I had peached on the upper classes. Other things followed one another so that I thought I was hoodooed for fair."

"Then for a little while it seemed as if I had a little luck. Things were going pretty well. But two months ago, at Provincetown, Mass., my old dad, turned up again. I was out in a cutter and we nearly collided with another boat as we rounded the prow of the battleship."

"I saw that the other craft was likely to take off our rudder, so I reached out my hand to bind her off. The result was that my hand was crushed, and it was only taken out of the plaster cast a few days ago."

"Then came the awful affair of Saturday night. That is too horrible for me to talk about."

One of the striking features of the tragedy, at least to landsmen, has been the revelation that so many sailors, men who actually live upon the water, were unable to save themselves by swimming. Lieutenant Commander Schofield of the New Hampshire is authority for the statement that a recent census of the ship shows that more than 300 members of the crew are unable to swim a stroke.

"There is nothing in the regulations compelling an enlisted man to learn to swim," says Commander Schofield. "Many of them enlist from inland towns, where they have never had an opportunity to learn. When they get liberty they don't want to spend their time in that way—so what can we do?"
